

We are offering unaltered shirts for 75 cents, worth $1 any where. Our shirts for $1 25 cannot be beaten. McAllister & Lytle.

McAllister & Lytle have received their stock of boots and shoes for the Fall trade. Their prices are as low as the lowest. Call and examine before buying.

AND still they come—we mean the pretty and attractive new goods at Hayden Brothers. Our lady readers will find something to please their taste in every line of goods, and the prices are down to the lowest rates, so that all in want can supply themselves.

BLUE GRASS FARM FOR SALE.—Dr. Logan, of Stanford, desires to sell his farm which is about five miles from Stanford, Ky., and about two miles from a Station on the Cincinnati Southern R.R. Said farm is well fenced, well watered, and splendidly set in grass. It contains 125 acres, is convenient to schools, in a good neighborhood, and lies beautifully.

We saw a gentleman dressed in real homespun the other day—a full suit made of the pretty jeans purchased of Hayden Brothers, and we declare he looked as stylish as any one clothed in far more costly apparel. Let men and boys wear these excellent and pretty goods, and keep all the money at home we can. Times would soon grow better. The Messrs. Hayden Brothers have a large and superior lot of jeans.

We take pleasure in announcing to our lady friends that we have received and opened this week, an elegant line of white goods, some of which we mention, viz: Hamburg Edging and Insertion, Torchon and Imitation Val. Laces, new style Cuffs and Collars, Ladies' plain hem-stitched and fancy bordered Handkerchiefs, Handkerchiefs, Table Linens, Towels, Crash, Napkins, &c. We have also received a beautiful line of Silk Handkerchiefs, worth from 25 cents to $1.25. Call and see us, we will take pleasure in showing you our goods whether you want to buy or not. McAllister & Lytle.

PROF. J. B. THARP.—This gentleman, whom we this week announce as a candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, has been in our town for the last few days forming the acquaintance of our citizens, and creating a favorable opinion.

Prof. Tharp has been for more than twenty years a teacher, and for three years past, Principal of Jessamine Female Institute, at Nicholasville. His long experience as a teacher, coupled with his fine classical and business education render him peculiarly fitted for the position to which he aspires. He is a life long Democrat and a high toned Christian gentleman.

BROUGHT IN.—Last Friday, Deputy Sheriff Murphy and Miller, of Davies county, and Policeman J. E. Handley, of Owensboro, arrived here with Bud Broadus, whom they had surprised and captured about two weeks before. It will be remembered that about that time we mentioned the fact that a telegram had been received by our Sheriff from Owensboro, asking if there was any reward for Broadus. Taking it for granted that the Sheriff would answer this, as he should, we also said that he had replied, saying that there was no reward, but that Broadus was wanted badly in this county and Garrison, on numerous indictments. But we find that we were mistaken, as we have it from the captors of Broadus that no answer was received from him, and from Mr. Anthony, the operator, that none was sent from his office. Now we would like to have Mr. Broadus and explain his action in the matter. The question was a legitimate one, and required a prompt answer. Surely Mr. Broadus could not consider relationship in such a matter. On Broadus' arrival, he was taken before Judge Brown, and his trial set for to-day. Broadus has been tried and convicted in several cases in Boyle, on one of which he got ninety days at hard labor in the work house. He will probably hold up for the present.

MARRIAGES.—HENLEY—LIKENS.—Mr. M. M. Henley and Miss Mary C. Likens, were married at Crab Orchard, on the 12th.

LEATHES—OWENS.—Last night at Mill-ledgeville, Mr. John A. C. Leathes, was married to Miss Alice Owens.

LIGHT—YOUNG.—Married yesterday at Highland, Mr. Jas. T. Light to Miss Sarah Young, daughter of Henderson P. Young.

CRITCHFIELD—STEPHENS.—Married yesterday, by the Rev. J. M. Bruce, Mr. Jas. O. Critchfield to Miss Rebecca, daughter of David Stephens.

HOCKER—JILES.—Mr. Franklin Hocker, a youth of twenty, and Miss Julia A. Jiles, a budding lass of eighteen, were married at Capt. William Daugherty's yesterday.

The business in the matrimonial market has been active this week, owing perhaps to old probability's prediction that frost would fall on the night of the 11th.

HALL—BLAIN.—At the residence of the bride's father, Col. R. Blain, on the morning of the 12th, by the Rev. Mr. Archibald, Mr. H. H. Hall, of Knoxville, Tennessee, to Miss Bettie Walker Blain, at tendants—Mr. J. G. Hall and Miss Kate Blain; Dr. Lee F. Huffman and Miss Lizzie Moreland. A pleasant little party gathered to witness the ceremony and after many hearty congratulations and well wishes for their happiness, the young couple left for their future home in Knoxville. Mr. Hall is a young merchant, and is reported as well worthy of the love of her whom he has chosen as his companion for life, while she is possessed of those womanly virtues of head and heart that are certain to insure their happiness. May the present indications and hopes of wedded bliss be more than realized.

REID—WILKINS.—Last Tuesday at 3 o'clock, P. M., the solemn ceremony was spoken that bound together the hearts and lives of Mr. Forrester Reid, a wealthy farmer, and Miss Kate R. Wilkins, the lovely and accomplished daughter of Mr. Horace S. Wilkins. Elder W. L. Williams performed the ceremony in a short and earnest manner, and after a shower of congratulations the guests were invited to dinner. The table was beautifully ornamented with flowers, and besides the toothsome array of substantial, were cake and confectionery, &c., made by Louisville's noted confectioner, Mr. Wolf. Ices and sherbets of almost every flavoring, and other good things without number combined to make a most magnificent repast. Dinner over, the happy pair bade farewell to home and friends, and left by private conveyance for a visit to the groom's mother in Garrard, accompanied by Misses Kate Portman and Josie Withers, and Mr. Hugh Reid. In winning the hand of a lady possessed of so many charms and attractions, after scores of gallants had striven for the prize and lost, Mr. Reid, should, and no doubt does think himself the happiest man living. The INTERIOR JOURNAL offers its warmest congratulations and wishes that old age may find them as happy in each others love as they were on the bright autumn day that saw them united.

Among the handsome array of presents, all of which were selected with an eye to utility, we noticed a pair of silver cake baskets, from Mrs. W. G. Bailey; silver pickle stand, from Mrs. D. R. Bowman; a beautiful silver jewelry case, Miss Josie Withers; set of silver tea and table spoons, Mrs. H. S. Withers; toilet stand in silver frame, Miss Kate Portman; sugar spoon, Mrs. Mollie McRoberts; napkin ring, Jimmie Withers; card receiver and flower stand, Miss Sallie Reid; Mrs. Amanda McMurtry, of Boyle, sent a lovely bouquet, and little Virginia, daughter of Mrs. D. B. Bowman, presented her picture in a handsome frame.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP ITEMS.—Dr. J. P. Owsley sold to Leo Singleton, 50 hogs at 34 cents.

Corn cutting has commenced. Seven and a half cents is paid for it per bushel.

J. M. Beazley bought of W. B. Feland, 20 pick out of 41 cattle, at 44 cents, October delivery.

Richard Cobb sold to J. M. Beazley, 20 pick out of his lot of cattle at 4 cents, delivery at once.

Mr. Leo Singleton, of Boyle, bought of A. C. Newland, of this county, 6 head of feeding cattle at 34 cents.

J. C. Woodward, of Fayette, sold on Saturday, to Ferguson & Co., of Bourbon, 100 fat cattle, at 56 per pound. Average weight about 1,700 pounds.

Lewis Nuckols sold 31 head of cattle to Neale, Smith & Herndon, of Great Crossing, for $4 60 per cwt—average weight, 1,557 pounds.—(Georgetown Times).

The sale of John H. Craig was well attended and household and kitchen furniture brought good prices—1 cow and calf sold for $21; 1 do. $36, and hogs at 3 cents per pound.

Messrs. Thos. R. Herndon and James D. Neale have gone to New York with three car-loads of cattle. The cattle cost them from $4 to $4 60 per hundred.—(Georgetown Times).

LOUISVILLE.—There is but little change to note in the cattle market. The market is active at these quotations: Good to extra shippers, 41 to 43; Best butchers, 34 to 35; Medium to good, 33 to 34; Thin, rough stock to medium, 11 to 23; Hogs are lower, choice $3 85 to $4; Fair to good, $3 50 to $3 75; Stockers, 24 to 31. The Sheep and Lamb market is quiet, and sales are slow. Sheep, extra, 31 to 33; Common to medium, 2 to 24; Lamb same prices as sheep.

LEXINGTON COURT.—Cattle of various grades, mostly not of an average quality, from 400 to 500 head, with sales ranging from 24 to 40, with many left over not sold. Mules, from 75 to 100 on sale, ranging in price from $30 to $75 per head; broke mules from $100 to $125. Horses in full supply in low grades at from $20 to $30 per head. $50 offered, which was sold at $1 50 to $2 55. The number of persons present much less than at any preceding Court day this Summer.—(Press).

Wm. L. Moore sold 102 mountain sheep to John W. Moore, at $2 45 per head.—J. Harvey Hunt sold last Friday, 48 fat cattle to Bedford, Cannady and Ferguson, at 55 per hundred, one car load to go this week and the others from 1st to 15th of October.—Ben Clod bought for Dr. Wash Miller, in Bourbon last week, 92 grade ewe lambs averaging 70 lbs. at $3 02 per head.—J. H. Croxton bought last week, near Kiddleville, 12 acres of corn, which is expected to average 15 barrels per acre, at $2 per barrel.—Josiah J. Bush sold last week 16 stock hogs weighing about 110 lbs. to W. Z. Eubank, at $2 50 per cwt.—(Winchester Democrat).

J. P. Leavell bought of James M. Doty, 45 stock hogs, 160 lbs. average, at 34 cents per pound.—J. G. Burnside sold his bunch of yearling cattle, 25 head, to Mr. Burnside, at $30 per head.—W. S. Beazley bought of Louis V. Leavell, 10 extra 2-year-old cattle, 1,250 lbs. average, at 44 cents per pound.—Joe Maret sold to Doer Tervis, of Madison, a nice lot of 3-year-old cattle, that aver aged about 1,400 lbs., at 4 cents per pound.—J. N. Denny bought at the Lexington Fair, a fine Cots-wold buck, for $40. A. O. Burnside also purchased one that cost him $25.—Messrs. John Burnside and Clel Terrill, have sold the remainder of their lots of 7 head each to Anderson, Bedford, Ferguson & Co., at 44 cents per pound, delivered from the 1st to 10th of October.—(Lancaster Visitor).

J. B. T. Davies delivered, last week, 640 barrels of corn he had sold as Master Commissioner, at $1 40 per barrel.—Only 15 bushels per bushel are offered for choice Irish potatoes, by the car-load, delivered at the depot in Harrodsburg.—D. C. Terhune, of this county, has bought this season 160 mule colts, about 100 first-class mare mules, at an average cost of $27, balance second-class mare mules and good horse mules, at prices ranging from $20 to $32 50, as to quality. He also bought 19 small 2-year-old mules of Mr. Caldwell, of Taylor county, at an average of $45 75 per head.—William Vivion, of Mercer, sold to Jerry Caldwell, of Boyle, 60 head of 2-year-old feeding cattle at 4 cents. The Shakers also sold 25 head at same price to same party. W. L. Reed bought of Winter Brewer, a lot of $4 15 per hundred.—(Harrodsburg Observer).

LINCOLN COUNTY NEWS.—PICKERS.—The calf trade is brisk in this section. Good ones are selling readily at $30 per head.

WAITING AND HOPING.—Some of our farmers in this locality are still waiting for an advance in the wheat market.

RELIGIOUS.—The meeting at Rush Branch closed Sunday night, with 7 additions; 3 by conversion, and 4 by letter.

A Sunday School Picnic was given at Providence Church last Saturday. We are told that it was an enjoyable affair.

PERSONAL.—Miss Lettie Helm, of Stanford, is visiting Miss Eliza Engleman. Mr. Miran Luce returned home a few days ago, after an extended trip to Kansas. He is well pleased with the grasshopper country. Mr. Will Alexander has rented Mrs. Blackerby's farm for next year.

HUSTONVILLE.—HUSTLE.—No body goes to Texas yet, from this locality.

W. R. SMITH & CO. Have received a new lot of hats. Call and see them.

BAITER.—All kinds of bairter taken in exchange for goods by W. H. Smith & Co.

PROPOUNDING THE LAW.—Squire Hocker has commenced laying down the law for the benefit of those who must be litigants.

EXTRA INDUCEMENTS.—To make room for their immense Fall and Winter stock—W. H. Smith & Co., will give extra inducements for the next thirty days.

WORLD'S MOST BODY SUICIDE?—Coroner Good is anxious to sit on some body's corpse; but he has no opportunity thus far to exhibit his excellence as a post mortem officer.

A LECTURER.—Clark Cash is lecturing on moral philosophy. The proposition he is maintaining now, is: "Never tell a lie when the truth will do as well." This is undoubtedly sound.

CHRISTIAN COLLEGE.—The session of Christian College opened yesterday under the auspices of Miss Burgh, its well known and efficient Principal. Her prospect for full classes is promising. Miss Annie Cook takes charge of the department of music.

PERSONAL.—Logan, of the firm of W. H. Smith & Co., is holding the fort here at present. Jake Robinson came over with him on a flying visit. Are there any young ladies in the sequestered village of Lancaster? They must be scarce; else how did two such handsome gentlemen as Robinson and Logan lapse, almost into the cold and cheerless state of old bachelorhood?

THE CONVENTION.—Will have come and gone ere your next issue. You will see this, however, before its adjournment. The country will wait with anxious expectation for the record of its action. Please see that every thing is done to facilitate its labors. Above all, have the Chaplain at his post. Especially let there be at least two kegs of "Lager" provided, in order that the deliberations shall not come to an untimely end, as at Somerset.

COLORS SAID.—Jarman's Fair was the sensation here last week. From early morn to dewy eve, the thoroughfares were alive with rushing, panting, sweating hosts, bedecked in every imaginable style of finery and imitation of the more enlightened race. A colored band from Danville did the music, and wore their uniforms as jauntily, and elicited public admiration as sedulously as ever did their paler faced compeers. It was a glorious time for the little colonies. Each diminutive tatterdemalion seemed to sing:

Don't want to be an Angel
And bid Angel stand,
I'd rather be a nigger
A nigger's wide head.

President Jarman, the pioneer of colored fairs—the Napoleon of programmes—the Bannum of resources—the Bayard of the ring—reports a grand success. The achieving of this taxed his powers to the utmost; but he was equal to the emergency and master of the situation. Am not able to give you a list of the awards. They were projected on a liberal scale, and you will be pleased to learn that a respectable share was won by the President.

TUNNEL CITY.—MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's father, Mr. H. P. Young, Mr. James Light, of this place, to Miss Sarena Young, of Highland, on Thursday, 12th inst. The happy pair have our hearty congratulations and best wishes that their happiness may never grow less than on their wedding day.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Happened to Mr. Joe Penabaker, at South Fork, Tuesday evening, while working with a yoke of oxen. While in close proximity to their heads adjusting the yoke, one of them with a flourish of the horn, hooked him in the neck, the point of the horn entering between the angular vein and windpipe, causing a very serious wound, though not considered dangerous.

TOWN OFFICERS QUALIFIED.—Mr. G. R. Durham received his Commission from the Governor as Police Judge of Tunnel City, last Saturday, and on Wednesday of this week, went before the County Clerk and was duly qualified; S. F. Reynolds also qualified and gave bond and is now installed as Marshal. The Trustees will hold their first meeting on Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. So we hope soon to have our new machinery of city government in operation.

ACQUITTED.—The trial of G. Lewis, charged with breach of the peace, was held here last Saturday evening, Squire McCoy, presiding, with Judge S. S. Myers for defendant, and County Attorney W. H. Miller, for the prosecution. After hearing the testimony of several witnesses and short speeches from the attorneys, the jury in a few moments made a verdict of acquittal, notwithstanding Mr. Miller's forcible and impressive arguments to urge upon them the importance of maintaining the honor and dignity of the Commonwealth by the punishment of all offenders.

NATURE A SERIOUS JOKE.—On Sunday evening last, while Mr. W. H. Humble and wife were out from home, Sam Flint, a deaf mute, and of very respectable family, unlocked the door of Mr. Humble's grocery with a key of his own, and in company with three other men, entered and helped themselves to whisky and ginger snaps, and acknowledged to having $4 50 in money, which he says a bad man gave him. Mr. Humble is not certain about the amount of money that was in the drawer, but thinks he lost about $7 in cash, besides the whisky and cakes. The men who were with him, claim that Sam invited them to go in and take a drink and they thought he was tending bar in Mr. Humble's absence on that Sabbath eve.

WE HOPE THAT SAM WILL BE MADE AWARE OF THE IMPROPRIETY OF TAKING SUCH LIBERTIES WITH OTHER PEOPLE'S PROPERTY FROM THIS, AND WILL NOT ATTEMPT TO PRACTICE SUCH JOKE IN THE FUTURE.

PERSONAL.—Miss Lillian Babcock, one of our most charming young ladies, is off for two weeks visit to Bradfordville. "Yes, Miss Lillian, we miss thee." Miss Carrie Pierce and Jennie Comer, are queens of the Croquet grounds. Mr. John Melvin, of Croquet grounds, is spending a part of his time with us this week. He is the present owner of the saw mill recently owned by Davis & Jarrett, and we are glad to see him making every thing around assume a true business-like appearance. Mr. Telford, of Gum Sulphur, was in our town this week, and succeeded in making satisfactory negotiations with Mr. Elijah Williams for cultivating his farm and logging his mill, and will move his family here within three or four weeks. We also have the honor to announce in the role of visitors last week, the names of Miss Lizzie Turner, of Louisville, Miss Bessie Foster, Mr. Adam Carpenter and Mr. Daniel Stagg; of this county, which handsome quartette paid our city a flying visit. The party were delighted with their romantic promenade of nearly a mile under ground through the tunnel, and expressed themselves highly pleased with their visit, as well as surprised at the extent of our town with its general business-like appearance. We would be glad to see the elegant ladies and gallant gentlemen again, when we get on our city clothes.

GARRARD COUNTY NEWS.—LANCASTER.—PERSONAL.—Dr. Charles Fox, a millionaire of San Francisco, and Mrs. Fox, his wife, are guests of Mr. W. H. Smith. Mrs. Fox's magnificent wardrobe is the admiration of all who have had a glimpse.

ANOTHER EXAMPLE FOR OURS.—It Quito's Jailor can achieve greater wonders than ours on the cleaning-up question he deserves the palm awarded to Hercules at the Augean Stables. Our elegant new jail was described as a place too loathsome for visitors, and its inmates must have been simply martyrs.

WE HAVE SHOT OUR PROOF READER.—Put not your trust in type! Tiers not Miss Rose Dunn, but Miss Rosa Brown, who teaches a country school. The former sits idling in the Senior Class of Franklin Institute, and her little friends who went because they were not going to school to her, may dry their eyes. Even the babes read the INTERIOR JOURNAL, and come to grief over its occasional errors.

WE DID THE SUB-HEADING.—My Socrates friend must not attribute to Sappho the epithet of "dead beat" as ascribed to his favorite Lincoln. The discerning editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL interlined those expressive words; but, after all, Sappho can sincerely say "I concur." The Lincolns can sing; but their gratuitous insults and uncollected drafts upon the people spoke out in mighty tones.

THE CRY FOR HELP.—From the stricken South meets a hearty response from every section. The Old Fellows Lodge, Christian and Presbyterian churches of Lancaster have contributed about $150. Mr. W. S. Miller has a nickel box established at his Hotel, which gathers the mites very successfully. Mr. Miller has also exerted himself to prepare a Promenade Concert and social entertainment for Friday night, the proceeds of which are to be sent South. Your correspondent, in company with Mrs. L. J. Frazer, made a thorough canvass of the town, and secured quantities of plain biscuit, which were packed in boxes and shipped to Grenada. The people gave generously of this article of food, which was selected because of its successful transportation and harmless properties. The appeal for food for thousands of persons thrown out of employment set the biscuit enterprise on foot, and it is earnestly hoped that our little mite may find its way to some "worn and weary brethren, pulling hard against the stream."

VISIT TO RICHMOND.—I have made a brief flitting to Richmond. Visited Central University, and was treated to a display of Prof. Tobin's Sine Pendulum, Phonograph, Megaphone and Microphone. I heard a watch tick at a distance of three miles, by the aid of the latter instrument; and so wonderful were the speeches and songs of the Phonograph that an incredulous auditor began to peep under the table, pull out the drawers, and look about for a ventiloquist
